Vets split opening weekend of playoffs

Vets lose close one in opener

the Navy Vets lost a close QF series opener to Paris 2-1 at Southwood Arena on Friday night ...

it was a battle of goaltenders ... Justin Hergott made 42 saves for the Mounties and was the star of the game while Keaghan Brett made 26 saves for the Vets including a couple of breakaways plus a penalty shot to keep the Vets close ...

Paris opened the scoring late in the 1st period after Hergott made many key saves on the Vets who dominated the period but couldn't score ...

after a scoreless 2nd period Jacob Rooke tied it for the Vets just 9 seconds into the 3rd ...

however Paris regained the lead just 2 1/2 minutes later and held on the rest of the way with Hergott shutting the door on the Vets for the victory ...

Vets rebound to even series

the Navy Vets came out strong and continued that play throughout the game as they won Game #2 in Paris on Saturday night 5-3 ...

the victory evens the Best-of-7 PJHL Doherty Division QF at 1-1 ...

Kyle Walker started and ended the scoring for the Vets ... Reid Campbell, Tom McFarlane, and Chris Thompson scored the others ...

Keaghan Brett had his 2nd straight strong performance making 39 saves in the Vets net ...
