Vets within win of advancing to SF

Vets take series lead

the Navy Vets got a big 5-1 win at Southwood Arena on Friday night over the Paris Mounties to take a 2-1 lead in their PJHL-Doherty Division QF series ...

Kurtis Christo led the attack with 2 goals ... Chris Thompson, Drew Woods, and Noah Kirk scored the other goals ...

Keaghan Brett made 36 saves in the victory ...

it was Minor Hockey Night and with Little Caesars sponsoring the game and having lots of giveaways the crowd was close to 900 to push the Vets over the 10,000 fans mark for the season (reg.season & playoffs) ... this is the 5th time in 6 seasons our attendance has reached that plateau !!!

the Navy Vets organization wants to thank the City of Woodstock and the surrounding County of Oxford for your tremendous support again this season !!!

Vets lose in OT as Paris evens series

the host Paris Mounties scored just over 11 minutes into overtime for a 2-1 victory over the Navy Vets on Sunday night and evened their QF series 2-2 ...

Chris Thompson scored the Vets goal ...

Keaghan Brett made 44 saves in the Vets net ...

Vets win close one in front of large home crowd

Noah Kirk scored with just under 4 minutes left in the 3rd period on a shot from the point to break a 2-2 tie and give the Navy Vets a 3-2 victory over the Paris Mounties in Game#5 of their PJHL Doherty QF series at Southwood Arena on Monday afternoon Family Day before over 1100 fans !!!

Kurtis Christo and Nick Billeci had given the Vets a 2-0 lead early in the 1st period but Paris came back to tie the game with 2 goals of their own in the late part of that 1st period ...

a scoreless 2nd period and first half of the 3rd period because of big saves by both goalies set the stage for Kirk's late heroics ...

Keaghan Brett made 28 saves in the win ... the Navy Vets will look to advance to the SF for the 2nd time in 3 seasons when they travel to Paris on Thursday night for Game#6 at Brant Sports Complex with a puck drop time of 7pm ...
