Doherty Division changes for the 2020-21 season.

The Ayr Centennials bought the Kitchener Dutchmen franchise and will be moving to the GOJHL. Also the PJHL granted the Delhi Travellers a Leave of Absence for the 2020-21 season. These moves mean the Doherty Division will consist of just 7 teams with a revised schedule and playoff format, both still to be determined.

Paris promoted Tyler Pelton to Head Coach with Brad Jones moving up in the organization. Norwich promoted Jared Boersma to Head Coach to replace resigning Brad Smith. Wellesley promoted Brad Gerber to Head Coach to replace departing Malcolm Hutt.

Ayr and Paris completed a big 9-player trade as the Centennials prepare to move to the GOJHL. Key in the trade was 17 year-old Matt Mueller moving to Ayr for 6 forwards and 2 defencemen.
