

OPENING WEEKEND GAMES PREVIEW

It's finally here after what has seemed like an eternity. The PJHL's 2021/22 regular season kicks off this weekend and we couldn't be happier. We hope you're as excited as we are!

Friday Night in Norwich

Our season kicks off against one of our oldest and biggest rivalries as we head down highway 59 to take on the Merchants. It's sure to be an electric atmosphere as the Merchants welcome their very loyal and passionate fan base back.

Puck drop in Norwich is slated for 8:00pm

2019-20 Season Series:

The Navy Vets won 4 of the 5 games.

Recent Head-to-Head:

The Navy Vets have won 13 of the last 20 games between the rivals ... including a dramatic 5-game QF series win in 2018.

Home Opener on Saturday Night

While Friday is sure to be exciting, Saturday is a night that we have been waiting for since March of 2020. Not only to get back to business but also to get another crack at the Tavistock Braves who ended our season in 2020. Both teams have seen significant turnover since we last played so Saturday should serve as a great indicator of where we stand.

Saturday's game time is 7:45pm with the gate opening at 7:15pm. The game night sponsor is the Lion's Club. Fans are asked to pre-purchase their tickets at <http://woodstocknavyvets.eventbrite.com> and review the COVID-19 protocols on our website or within your ticket confirmation email.

2019-20 Season Series:

Tavistock won all 5 regular season games and swept the SF series 4-0 ...

Recent Head-to-Head:

the Navy Vets haven't beaten the Braves since Oct.02, 2018 4-1 at Southwood Arena ... going 13 games without a victory over their Hwy 59 rivals.
