

Waking up with the Vets – Feb 22

Patrick Klazer scored twice and Nolan Brett continued his hot weekend with a beautiful goal while adding 2 assists as the Navy Vets outlasted the Norwich Merchants in a classic Hwy59 rivalry matchup on Monday afternoon before a large Family Day crowd.

Mack Easter also chipped in a goal and 2 assists.

League-leading scorer Kyle Baker was held pointless for only the 4th time this season.

903 fans watched the hotly contested game that was back and forth until Griffin Sinden scored what proved to be the winner early in the 3rd period to open a Vets 5-3 lead.

The Vets had to hang on when the Merchants buzzed the net with an extra attacker in the final moments after Jack Gee had made the game close with a late goal.

Keaghen Brett made 25 saves to record his division-leading 14th win of the season.

Special Congratulations:

Patrick Klazer extended his division & league leading point streak to 18 games !!.

Special Thanks:

To Little Caesars the Official Sponsor of our Family Day Game for all the prizes and support throughout the year of the Vets. !!
And to the 900+ hockey fans from Woodstock and throughout Oxford County who showed up and cheered loud & proud at the Family Day game !!

What's Next:

The Vets will travel to Tavistock on Friday night for a crucial matchup.

Around the Doherty:

New Hamburg beat Tavistock 4-2 in the only other Family Day game on Monday afternoon.

Current Standings:

The win was their 6th straight (for the 2nd time this season) and moved the Vets into 1st place 2 points up on Wellesley and Tavistock with 5 games left in the regular season.
