

Waking up with the Vets – Mar 05

The Navy Vets won a big entertaining game on Friday night at Southwood Arena 7-5 over New Hamburg ... before over 550 noisy fans on Fan Appreciation Night !! The victory means the Vets can win the Doherty Division pennant with a win in Burford on Saturday night.

The last time a Vets team won the division regular season pennant was 20 years ago back in 2002.

Nolan Brett scored 2 goals and Caden Bower had 1 goal & 2 assists to lead the Vets. Kyle Baker had a goal and added an assist to give him 71 points on the season ... highest total by a Vet since 1999.

Patrick Klazer's assist extended his league longest point-scoring streak to 19 games. Keaghan Brett made 33 saves for his division leading 16th win of the season.

The Vets got out to a 3-1 lead early in the 2nd period but then a 3-goal outburst by New Hamburg gave them the lead before overage honouree Drew Mullett made a huge key play when he knocked down a Firebirds clearing pass and rifled a shot past the Bird's goalie to tie the game 4-4 tie heading into the final period. New Hamburg took the lead 7 minutes into the 3 period but in less than 2 minutes the Vets had tied the game on Baker's goal and Bower notched the winner. Brett's 2nd of the game was an insurance marker with just under 7 minutes left.

Special Congratulations:

Keaghan Brett, Liam Munro, Drew Mullett, and Wes Dobbin were honoured in a pre-game ceremony as overagers in their final year of junior hockey !!
