Vets win Regular Season Title, then eliminated in great SF series

Vet win 1st Pennant in 20 years

The Navy Vets won a big game 7-5 at Southwood Arena against New Hamburg on Friday March 4 to set up a possible 1st place finish clinching game in Burford the following night. Then in Burford the Vets struggled at times but then took over and won easily 10-5 to win their 1st division title in 20 years.

With the top place finish the Vets earned a 1st round bye directly into the Semi-finals.

Vets face New Hamburg in Semi-finals

The #4 seed New Hamburg Firebirds defeated the #5 seed Norwich Merchants in a 5-game QF series to advance to the Semi-finals against the Navy Vets.

The Navy Vets jumped out to a 2-0 series lead after Patrick Klazer scored with just 3 minutes left in Game#1 at Southwood Arena and a 4-1 victory in New Hamburg in Game#2.

But the Firebirds evened the series with 2-1 and 3-1 wins.

Eric Tuori scored 11 minutes into OT in Game#5 at Southwood to give the Vets a 4-3 win after 3 comebacks in the game and put the Vets up 3-2 in the series and within 1 win of advancing to the finals.

New Hamburg shut down the Vets at home and came away with a 4-1 win in Game#6 to force Game#7.

The Firebirds jumped out to a 2-0 lead after 2 periods in the deciding game but a goal by Lakin Hendry with just over 6 minutes left set up a final push by the Vets. However an empty net goal by Josh Vale sealed the deal and the Firebirds eliminated the top place Navy Vets in 7 games to advance to the Doherty Division Championship Series against the Tavistock Braves who had eliminated Wellesley in 5 games in the other semi-final.
