

Game Recap – Sep 23

Sam Barry scored on the powerplay with just under 5 minutes left to give the Vets a 4-3 win over Wellesley at Southwood Arena on Friday night.

The Vets jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead just over halfway thru the 1st period.

But Wellesley chipped away scoring 1 late in the 1st, and 2 in the 2nd, to even the score.

Brendan Sullivan, Ethan Szabo, and Jake Ertel scored the other Vets goals, the 1st of the season for each.

Graeme Noye was outstanding again in the Vets' net making several breakaway saves among the 37 he made total in the game for his 2nd straight win.

Special Congratulations:

Barry with the goal as well as Griffin Sinden who had an assist increased their point-streaks to 3 games.
