

GAME PREVIEW

The Navy Vets head into their 2nd weekend of action having split their opening weekend, losing 8-2 in New Hamburg and beating Norwich 3-2 in their home opener.

Griffin Sinden was the leader for the Vets scoring 4 of the 5 goals and assisting on the other.

Wellesley lost their only game last weekend, 4-3 in overtime in Norwich.

The teams were at the centre of a blockbuster multi-player deal in the off-season ... with the Vets acquiring Jake Ertel and Patrick Holloway and other considerations from the Applejacks in return for Kyle Baker and Patrick Klazer.

The teams split the games against each other last season, each winning 3 times once in OT.
