

GAME PREVIEW

The Navy Vets travel to Wellesley on Saturday night.

The Applejacks have won 2 of the 3 meetings so far this season.

The Vets lost 7-1 to New Hamburg at Southwood last night, while Wellesley won 4-2 in Norwich.

The Vets in 5th place with 11-10-0-1 record but only 2 points back of Norwich and 4 points behind Tavistock.

The Applejacks are in 2nd place with a 16-5-1-1 record trailing the top place Firebirds by 10 points but with 1 game-in-hand.

Ethan Szabo with 16 goals and 9 assists and Davin Gray with 13 goals and 12 assists lead the Vets in scoring with Gray continuing to be the division top rookie scorer. Both are in top 10 division scorers.

Former Navy Vet Kyle Baker leads the Applejacks in scoring and sits in 3rd place in division scoring with 11 goals and 27 assists. Adam Hoff is also in the top 10 scorers with 9 goals and 17 assists.

Rookie goalie Noah Bender leads the division with a 12 wins and most minutes played.

Wellesley will be without Alexandr Sutchin and Patrick Klazer who both are sitting lengthy suspensions.