

GAME PREVIEW

The Navy Vets host Tavistock at Southwood Arena on Friday night for Kids Night and "Fill the Net" Toy Drive Night.

The Navy Vets have won 2 of the 3 meetings so far this season.

The Vets are coming off 2 losses last weekend ... 7-1 to New Hamburg at Southwood on Friday and 6-1 in Wellesley on Saturday.

They are in 5th place with 11-11-0-1 record ... 4 points back of Norwich and 6 points behind Tavistock.

The Braves are in 3rd place with a 13-8-1-2 record trailing 2nd place Wellesley by 7 points.

Ethan Szabo with 16 goals and 9 assists and Davin Gray with 13 goals and 12 assists lead the Vets in scoring with Gray continuing to be the division top rookie scorer. Both are in top 10 division scorers.

Zach Gladding leads the Braves in scoring with 12 goals and 10 assists.

Rookie goalie James Hopper is 2nd in the division with a 2.33 GAA.

The Braves have been decimated by injuries ... 6 veteran forwards including Gladding and another top scorer Jayden Seguin are out indefinitely.

The Navy Vets appear to be getting close to a healthy squad having not iced a full healthy team all season so far.
