2023-24 Navy Vets Season Preview

Vets look for rebound season

The Navy Vets look to rebound this season after suffering a bit of a down year in 2022-23 following their Doherty Division regular season pennant in 2021-22.

Despite playing their best hockey of the season in the QF they lost in OT in game #7 to Tavistock Braves.

Roster re-tooled

Only 2 players graduated from the Vets following the 2022-23 season ... forward Griffin Sinden who was injured most of the season and Tommy Zufelt.

Overage veteran goaltender Graeme Noye was traded to New Hamburg and overage veteran defenceman/forward Eric Tuori was traded to Paris for 2nd year goalie Scott Rodrigue.

They acquired defenceman Chris Coulter and forward Owen Lukings from the Komoka Kings of the GOJHL, overage defenceman Mitch Penner from the 2023 Schmalz Cup Champion Wellesley Applejacks, as well as overage defenceman Tyler Smeda and overage forward Ty Crombie from the PJHL Bloomfield Division champion Glanbrook Rangers.

Signed from the OHF U18 A Champion Woodstock Jr Navy Vets are forwards Aiden Kindurys, Brady Carne, Connor Stanley, and defenceman Michael Vermeersch.

Returning from last year's team are goalie Tyler Bouck, defencemen Jordan Thomson and Jake Phelan, as well as forwards Cole Dann, Sam Barry, Nolan Brett, Matt Brooks, Rhylan Warford, and their MVP-Rookie-Scorer Awards winner Davin Gray.
