

2024 SCHMALZ CUP RECORD BOOK

The eight Junior C leagues of the Ontario Hockey Association merged for the 2016-17 season to create the Provincial Junior Hockey League.

The union was in an effort to streamline rules across the classification and to promote growth and development.

The leagues that make up the PJHL are the former Central, Empire B, Georgian Mid-Ontario, Great Lakes, Midwestern, Niagara & District, Southern, and Western leagues that are now the eight divisions split into four conferences.

The Tod Division was named after Wayne Tod who served a number of years as league convenor and statistician and also served as a Director for the OHA and the Ontario Hockey Federation.

The Orr Division was named after Jim Orr, a true friend to Junior hockey. Jim served as the League Convenor of the Central Ontario Junior C Hockey League from 1990 to 2016.

The Carruthers Division was named after Paul Carruthers who was a very well respected hockey man in the Georgian Triangle sports community for a number of years.

The Pollock Division was named after Clarke and Kevin Pollock. Both Clarke and Kevin are well respected in hockey circles and particularly around the Kincardine area where they continue to work closely with younger officials.

The Stobbs Division was named after Bill Stobbs who served in numerous roles with the OHA, the Hockey Development Centre of Ontario, the Ontario Hockey Federation, and was Chairman for the Great Lakes League for a number of years.

The Yeck Division was named after Don Yeck who was a special volunteer and friend to the OHA, the Ontario Hockey Federation and minor hockey groups.

The Doherty Division was named after Pat Doherty who was instrumental in the game of hockey in the OHA and across Canada.

The Bloomfield Division was named after Tony Bloomfield and although he never played the game of hockey, Francis Gerald "Tony," dedicated 50 years of his life to administering both minor and junior hockey in Ontario.
